

Useful

We've decided to add a page that can be useful to all those visiting or living in Madrid. Here we'll try to give the most concrete, useful and concise info on useful tips in Madrid, be it on getting your monthly metro pass or getting to the airport.

And, as always, feel free to ask us to write about anything more specific. We've been living here for a while, some of us all our lives! So we often take certain things for granted and forget how difficult it can be to get settled into a new city.

Here's a short list of our growing tips:

1. How to get to Madrid's airport
