

Wine Bus

Spain is one of the world's top wine producers and luckily, you can find many of the country's finest vineyards and wineries near Madrid. So don't miss out on the opportunity to visit a bodega while you're here. On a one-day tour, you'll get to taste wine from different regions of Spain, see the wine-stained barrels and cellars they're stored in, as well as learn about the history behind it all. Not to mention, you'll surely be fed well too.

If you don't know how or when to visit a bodega, then you're in the right place. The Wine Bus was created by Ignacio Segovia a few years ago. At a turning point in his life, he began visiting wineries within a two-hour drive of Madrid and soon discovered that he had found his calling. Ever since, he has been bringing people on tours to Spain's beautiful wine cellars every Saturday. The brilliant part is – you don't have to drink and drive! He takes care of the bus for you, hence the name – the Wine Bus – which picks you up and drops you off from the center of Madrid. So hop on!

- Each trip costs 59€ plus 20€ for food and wine per person.
- You can book a spot on the next Wine Bus tour here.
- For a 3€ discount, enter the promotional code “Naked”!

Map2app

Are you a travel blogger or local tour guide? Is your business organizing a festival, fair or conference series? Or are you simply looking for the best way to spread the word on your favorite spots? If so, then look no further, because your content no longer has to be limited to blog posts and web pages – it's time for you to make an app!

Map2app allows you to make your content available to anyone anywhere with a handy app that includes interactive maps, menus, content, and more. And it's not only for bloggers – anyone can use it. As described by Map2app's CEO, Pietro Ferraris, “Map2app does for mobile apps what WordPress does for blogs: It makes content publishing easy, intuitive and free.”

The best part of all is that you don't really need to have IT skills. Thanks to Map2app, anyone can come out with an affordable app as an additional way to help people locate their favorite spots. Just following a few easy steps and voila: you've got yourself an app!

Steps:

1. Go to the website and sign up
2. Upload your blog content (text & images)
3. The software generates the app
4. Publish it on the main app stores!

Here is a useful video on how to make your own app using Map2app software:

In case you're wondering, we at Naked Madrid are working on our own app which will come out soon!

The Fun Plan

Party along the Mediterranean in a luxurious catamaran, get a rush of adrenaline on Europe's longest zip-line, or pedal around Amsterdam on a beer bike! You can do all this, and much more, thanks to The Fun Plan.

Planning trips among a group of friends is never easy. Someone always backs out, another never confirms, and then there's that guy who complains but doesn't help. So let somebody else do the planning for you!

With the The Fun Plan, a Spanish travel agency specialized in organizing group trips, you and your friends can take advantage of the best experiences in Spain and Europe, without the fuss and hassle. The Fun Plan's main goal is to make your trips smooth and unforgettable. You'll find all their travel packs on their web, from catamaran parties in Barcelona, Spain, to para-sailing in Albufeira, Portugal. If you can't find what you're looking for, let them know and they'll go get it for you!

Oversailing Spain

When it comes to sailing, there is a slight impediment in Madrid. The city is surrounded by a precious Sierra and a rich meseta, but not a real (or fake) sea and that makes sailing quite difficult to do so. Sure there are a few options to get the sailing feel, although we felt there were no more than patches until you really experience the Mediterranean sea or the Atlantic ocean in Spain.

A few months later we found a real experience which we think we should share with you. We went to Cadiz and spent the hole week sailing in the Atlantic and Guadalquivir river. Here is a link to the original post about our trip sailing.

In naked madrid, we offer the possibility of joining us every time you want in a instructive adventure. We warning you, this is not a calm cruise in the sea. Prepare yourself to learn how to sail and survive in a sail boat.
