

Madrid summer film festivals – open-air cinemas, special screenings and more!

Summer in Madrid is great if you like film, because you'll find tons of open-air screenings and the city's theaters and museums offering special deals (i.e. tickets cost around 3€). For example, Madrid's Palacio de Cibeles sets up a big screen underneath its glass roof. The cultural center, Conde Duque, and the French Institute put on films in their courtyards.

Sorry we didn't get around to writing up a list of all the best places to see movies in Madrid this summer, but thankfully, our friends at Spotahome have done all the work for us ☐
