

Madrid's 10 Most Beautiful Surrounding Towns

One of the best things about living in Madrid is that you can easily escape the city center and take a day-trip or weekend getaway to one of the beautiful nearby towns.

These towns have some of the world's oldest universities, cathedrals, monasteries and historic monuments. You'll also find natural swimming pools, mountains, hiking trails and other adventure activities. And make sure to try special dishes like Segovia's cochinillo, suckling pig, or Ávila's sugary egg yolks, known as yemas.

Here's a list of the most popular nearby towns, plus a few things you should know about each one. Click on each town name below or our category link "How to get to" for a more in-depth post on each one, and all the different ways to get there.

San Lorenzo del Escorial

What to see:

El Escorial is famous for its beautiful Monasterio which was built between 1563 and 1584. We recommend going inside the monastery, even though the entrance fee costs €10.

Once you've visited the monument, it's absolutely necessary to take a walk around the charming little town. Grab a seat at a terrazza and enjoy the pure air of the city's mountains, known as la sierra de Madrid.
