Wine Tour of Bodegas Kirios and Aranda de Duero

Founded by Ignacio Segovia, The Wine Bus takes groups of up to 20 people on day trips to wineries around Madrid every Saturday. As its name entails, passengers are welcome to drink as much as they like because someone else is driving. The Wine Bus picks you up at Hotel Claridge (Plaza de Conde de Casal) in Madrid at 9:30 a.m. and drops you off in the same spot at 8:30 p.m. On these tours, you'll enjoy learning how the wine is made, the stories behind the wineries and of course, taste different wines and eat a great meal, too!

Saturday, December 13th

This Saturday you can visit Bodegas Kirios, a beautiful family-run winery that we at Naked Madrid actually went to on our trip with the Winebus last year. Bodegas Kirios will provide you with a delightful tour of both their modern winery and old underground cellar. After the tour, you'll have a delicious meal of pork chops, morcilla and roasted red peppers, paired with wine, of course. Then you'll go to Aranda de Duero, a town that is seeped in wine history, and have a guided tour of the caves there too.
